

RESCUE THE ANIMALS, SPCA

PETS ON THE GO

HOW THE POGO NETWORK WORKS

Here is a summary of two of our recent trips to give you an idea of what it takes to move our animals to safety.

16 Chihuahuas to Disneyland!

1,265 miles

Kim Jacobs in Orlando placed 39 Dachshunds for us two years ago and was ready to do another transport. We hoped most would come from the Abilene Animal Shelter, but they ran out of Chihuahuas! Kim and Lora Jones soon located dogs at the Paris and Garland pounds. As the trip came together we added Lorelie and two puppies, Lucky, and Trent from Abilene. Kim then began enlisting drivers for the 21 legs of the trip. Each leg needed two cars!

Here is a list of the cities where cars and drivers handed off to new teams.

What our All-Volunteer Team Does in a typical week.....

Every day up to 60 animals are fed and exercised. Kennels and condos are cleaned at least once each day. Every animal is checked daily, and medications are given. We closely monitor each animal because we take so many with special needs. With the arrival of winter, our team will be running the washer and dryer non-stop every day.

Our All-Volunteer Team works seven days week!

As animals arrive, new record folders are created and appointments with Dr. Allen Bolt are scheduled for exams. Here is what we do for virtually every arriving animal.

All of this work usually requires more than one trip per animal to the vet clinic as little problems always seem to pop up. A little mange, tick fever, heartworms (30 days treatment), parvo, upper respiratory, or injuries always seem to make another vet visit necessary.

Our All-Volunteer Team spends a lot of time on the road shuttling animals in and out of Abilene, and also back and forth to the vet clinic. Here is a typical week of basic medical visits. Extra trips are needed for emergencies just about every week.
